

Coated Cables

Our Extruders are equipped with laser monitors that constantly measure every centimeter of the coated cable.

These machines insure the highest quality control over the outside diameter of the coatings during production.